

May 10, 1924.

My dear Sir:-

On receipt of your check (enclosed) I mailed you a copy of the Book of Songs.

The check is now returned to me by my bank as uncollectible, with recommendation that I "Refer to Maker." This I now do, and am sure you will straighten the matter out.

I trust that the Songs are already giving you pleasure.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. F. P. Search,
